Anacaona Boutique Hotel

Right next door to the elaborate Viceroy Hotel is a more traditional and affordable small hotel on Meads Bay. The Sirena Hotel is being rechristened the Anacaona Boutique Hotel (in honor of a Taino chief) by Sue and Robin Ricketts, who got the ball rolling for Anguilla tourism when they opened the venerable Malliouhana 26 years ago. Part of their agenda is to spotlight Anguilla's traditional West Indian culture by presenting folkloric dance, music and storytelling. The property has lush gardens, cozy furnishings and a classic Caribbean feel.
